CCISD FFA LIVESTOCK SHOW RULES

General Rules

1. The Agriscience teachers of Clear Creek Independent School District and the appointed show officials under their direction, reserve the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard and hereto otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incidental to this educational event. This governing body is later referred to in this instrument as the "Management".
2. The show Management reserves the right to amend and/or add to these rules and regulations as it, in its judgment, may deem advisable. Management authority and responsibility are limited to those activities and events directly related to and being part of the CCISD FFA Livestock Show and Auction Schedule and Rules.
3. The Clear Creek Independent School District, its employees, and appointed show officials will not be liable for any damage(s) resulting from fire, theft, accident, injury or any other adverse situation(s).
4. The Clear Creek Independent School District, its employees, and appointed show officials will be held harmless in the event the CCISD Livestock Show is cancelled for reasons beyond our control.
5. The Agriscience teachers will strictly regulate all construction building or site modification and/or introduction or use of equipment. Prior CCISD administrative approval is required. The Agriscience teachers will make appropriate pen assignments for animals brought into the West Agricultural Facility for the week of the Livestock Show and Auction. Animals housed at the West Agricultural Facility may be reassigned temporarily during the show. Assignments will be determined by Agriscience teachers.
6. The show facilities will be closed at 9:00 PM or when the last show is completed for the evening, whichever comes last. The show facility will reopen at 5:00 AM on all show days. On the day following the Auction, the barn will not officially be open to the public until 1:00 PM. If students have an animal that needs to be fed on that morning, it is the responsibility of the student to leave out the right amount of food that needs to be fed to the animal so that the show management team can feed.

7. All alcoholic beverages and tobacco products are barred from the show grounds as per state statutes and local CCISD rules and regulations. Any person caught with an alcoholic beverage or tobacco product will be removed from the show grounds. If that person has an animal project to show, he/she will be barred from further competition and will be reported to proper authorities for disciplinary action.
8. Protests: All protests must be made in writing and submitted to a committee that consist of the Agriscience teachers, the Show Chairman and the CCISD CTE Administration by 12:00 PM January 17, 2023 along with a $250.00 cash fee, which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained.
9. Prepackaged foods and soft drinks will be offered for sale by CCISD FFA Booster Clubs, utilizing the provided concession area.
10. Inappropriate behavior, gestures or offensive language will not be tolerated. District code of conduct will be enforced. Consequences will vary depending on severity.

Student Rules & Responsibility

11. Exhibitors must be enrolled in at least one semester of an Agriscience course in the Clear Creek Independent School District during the 2022-2023 school year. Exhibitors must also be paid FFA members in good standing and have satisfactory class attendance records.
12. A student will be eligible to participate for only four years, as defined by school district policy.
13. Exhibitors must abide by all rules in accordance with local district policy regarding eligibility for participation.
14. Students failing to maintain academic eligibility for the CCISD Livestock Show, must remove their CCISD Livestock Show Project from CCISD Facilities by January 10th, 2023.
15. Entry forms, fees, and W-9's for Ag. Mechanics, Breeding Heifers, and Rabbits must be submitted by November 11, 2022. All entries are submitted to the respective Agriscience teachers.
16. Each exhibitor must own his/her animal at the beginning of and throughout the feeding period and must feed, care for, and exhibit his/her own animal. Any break in the ownership or enrollment in CCISD Agriscience program forfeits animal and or exhibitor entries. Exhibitors may only exhibit the designated livestock project officially tagged in their name on the designated selection day.

17. Each exhibitor will feed and care for his/her animal during the entire length of the show.
18. In case an exhibitor is unable to check in his/her project, with prior notification, the project may be checked in by another FFA student, Agriscience teacher, or parent. Projects may only be checked in during designated times. There will not be early or late check- ins.
19. Substitution exhibitors will be approved by the Agriscience teachers.
20. Exhibitors will not be allowed to stay overnight on the show grounds.
21. Hats or caps on exhibitors will not be allowed in the show ring.
22. All students who have assigned facilities and/or used facilities at the FFA project barn before and during the auction, must leave the facility clean, in a sound state of repair.
23. Students failing to sign in and participate in show clean up as designated by their Agriscience teachers (please see schedule) will be fined a $100.00 fee for each session. All stalls and pens at the barn must be cleaned by the Friday following conclusion of show. This fine will be deducted from the sale of the livestock project or assessed at the conclusion of the show.
24. All fees, if any, owed to the CCISD FFA Livestock Show and Auction must be paid in full. Students will be checked out officially by their Agriscience teacher(s) and respective chairmen. Fees will need to be cleared by March 8, 2023.
25. Exhibitor must be present at time of show.

Animal Selection/Identification Rules

28. All steers, lambs, swine, goats, and poultry will be “centrally ordered” through the Agriscience teachers. Students will draw for pick out of a group of like steers, lambs, swine, and goats. All animals must come from this “central order” to be eligible for competition at the CCISD FFA Livestock Show and Auction. The central producer/breeder will be selected by the Agriscience teachers.
 - a. CCISD will provide a 50% refund to an exhibitor, in the event an animal dies with in the first 48 hours of selection.

29. Each student may only purchase, tag-in, and show one animal project in each livestock division. However, for Non-Animal Projects, a student may enter in each class within the division (i.e. one wood project and one metal project.)
30. All livestock and poultry entered in the CCISD FFA Livestock Show Auction will be tagged/banded/tattooed when exhibitors select animals under the supervision of the Agriscience teachers.
- If the animal is not tagged/banded/tattooed on the set date, then the student will not be allowed to exhibit the animal at the CCISD FFA Livestock Show and Auction.
 - If an animal loses their official CCISD tag/band(s), the exhibitor must immediately notify their Agriscience teacher so that the animal can be re-tagged/re-banded.
 - No non-tagged/non-banded/non-tattooed animal will be allowed to check-in or weigh-in at the CCISD FFA Livestock Show and Auction.
 - The tag/band must remain in place until the show and auction is over and the animals have been officially checked-out by official show representatives.

Division Rules of Livestock Show

31. Show entries will be limited to the divisions offered.
32. Agriscience teachers are to determine when the judging of classes shall begin.
33. Agriscience teachers will inform the ring steward when students are to enter the arena.
34. All judges' decisions are final.
35. The CCISD Livestock Show and Auction reserves the right to collect a urine sample for laboratorial analysis on all species of Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion animals exhibited at the show, and a random draw from each species at show management's discretion. It is the exhibitor's/parents' responsibility to remain with the animal and assist in the collection. Each exhibitor or parent must sign a form indicating that they witnessed the collection of the urine sample. An exhibitor of an animal producing an analysis with a quantity of diuretic, any unapproved medication, or any substance not approved by the FDA will forfeit sales proceeds and will be barred from participation in future CCISD Livestock Show and Auction competitions. All tests will be final without recourse against CCISD Livestock Show and Auction or any of its officers. Upon receipt of test results, checks will be issued to eligible exhibitors.

36. Evidence of the following will result in automatic disqualification from the current year's CCISD Livestock Show and Auction, which includes any sale opportunities. STUDENT COMPLETION STEPS

Steps for Sale Disbursement

There are a few items of business that must be completed in order to finalize your sale payment of all supervised agriculture experience projects. All items need to be completed prior to March 8, 2023. Your payment will be mailed to the address previously submitted.

1. Under the direction of your respective Agriscience teacher and parent/guardian, you must complete handwritten thank you letters to your buyer, add-on donors, or premium donors, in February of 2023.
2. Your Agriscience teacher will supply you with the name, address, and phone number of your buyers, add-on donors, or premium donors.
3. After writing the letters, your Agriscience teacher must proofread and approve it before it is sealed in an envelope. Your Agriscience teacher will mail these for you.
4. If you sold through the Auction a framed picture will be given to you. You are required to either mail it or deliver it in person along with your thank-you letter.
 - If mailing items, have physical proof of the shipment via mailing receipt or tracking information paperwork saying the item was delivered. If personally delivering items, your buyer must sign to confirm they have received it.
5. If you sold broilers, turkeys or rabbits and they were to be processed and delivered, you are responsible for processing and delivering items along with the thank you letter and picture.
6. Pen assigned at barn cleaned and attended all mandatory "Barn Clean Ups"
7. All fees to FFA Chapter paid in full
8. Turned in Barn Key (s) ($15.00 penalty fee per key card that is not returned)
9. Additional teacher requirement(s)
10. Please fill out the top portion of the attached Student Completion Form following this page and attach your shipping/tracking documentation or have your buyer personally sign, indicating the buyer received their thank you letter and other necessary items. Leave the bottom portion and amount blank for your teacher to fill in.

Your payment will be processed when the above completed items are returned, and you have appropriately cleaned your animal pen/area at the barn, and you are clear of any fees owed to your FFA Chapter. Upon completion forms will be processed by CCISD Finance Department for student's check to be processed for disbursement and mailing.

Required Signatures

We certify that we understand the final student completion steps. We will abide by the steps above to get a sale payment to be disbursed.

	6 City, state, and ZIP code
7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Employer identification number

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/w9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
